

SPM NEWS

Issue 10 October 2017 Volume 14

It is Flu and Cold Season: So please remember to wash your hands, and if you have a cold or the flu we would discourage you from coming to visit your loved one as they are vulnerable to cold and flu and so is the home to an outbreak. Don't forget to get your flu shot when it is offered. Thank you

Roof Replacement: As many of you know we have received funding from the City of Brockville and the Township of Elizabethtown –Kitley to replace two portions of flat roof on the south and east portions of the old part of SPM. This new roof is currently being installed and will be completed sometime this month. It is a newer type of spray on foam roof with a silicone sealant on top. This will provide us with many years of keeping the moisture out.

Auxiliary Fall Bazaar: This year's bazaar is on Saturday October 21, 2017 from 9 am -130 pm at Sherwood Park Manor. There are baked goods, crafts, for sale, as well as private vendors will be selling their wares. The auxiliary also runs a luncheon from 11 am -1 pm in the large activity room. Cost is $7.00 per person. This year the Auxiliary wishes to raffle off a Gift Basket, donations of items to put into the gift basket can be brought to the Main Office of Sherwood from 9am -4 pm Monday thru Friday and placed in the box provided. In addition, any donations of crafts and baked goods can be brought to SPM on Friday October 20, 2017 at 1 pm. This is the main fund raiser for the Auxiliary so please come on out and support our Auxiliary on October 21, 2017. Please speak to Marlene Greenhalgh at r-m.greenhalgh@myhighspeed.ca for more information.

Railway Tunnel: This month's outing with the residents is a trip to see the newly updated Railway Tunnel on Tuesday October 10, 2017 at noon. If you would like to assist our staff, please contact Jackie Humble at Sherwood.

Message for Family members: Please be reminded that the dining areas is for residents and staff. If you would like to feed your loved one you can do so in the Large or Small Activity Rooms. Please call 2 hours in advance if you are planning to come for a meal or are bringing food in.

Family Council: The next meeting of the family council is on Tuesday October 17, 2017 at 6:30 pm in the Board Room of Sherwood Park Manor. All family members are welcome to come.